Clear Creek Advisors, a registered investment adviser.

What we doHow does Clear Creek Advisors protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards as well as secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to your non-public personal information to those who need to know that information in order to service your account.

To protect you from "phishing" and other fraudulent activities, we will never request that you provide personal information to us via unsolicited e-mails, text messages or pop-up windows.

How does Clear Creek Advisors collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Sign an investment advisory agreement with us
- Provide financial information on suitability forms to us so that we can provide our advisory services

We may also receive information about you from your accountants, lawyers, or tax preparers in regards to your investments.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
